Not only are the western roads uneasy over the refusal of the Canadian Pacific itself, but they are fearful that its attitude will cause the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern to hesitate about becoming members of the association. The Canadian Pacific is the strongest competitor they have, and they are not at all likely to place themselves in a position where they will be unable to meet the rates the Canadian Pacific may at any time choose to make.

PROSELYTING IN CHICAGO.

Elder Orson Richards, it was stated, recently left Utah and settled in Mexico. He is one of the missionaries now pushies the Mormon propaganda in Chicago, where factory hands are being button-holed daily by the proselyters with alluring prospects of a residence in a Mormon colony in the sunny Ric Grands country Rept constantly before them. But Elder Darks protested that "there is no purpose to induce converts to leave Chicago, unless they want to do so after they have lived here two years in the faith." At the end of two years, the lill-nois mission will terminate he said.

The elders said yesterday that they had gated 170 converts in Himois during tho hast aix months. Many of these converts were in attendance at yesterday's meeting. But they were, for the most part, women, One ancient maiden said she was groud of her conversion to Mormonism.
